In his final general audience address on Dec. 30 from the library of the Apostolic Palace, Francis said Catholics can change the world for the better by being "bearers of gratitude" amid the hopelessness and despair that people felt in 2020. "Let us not forget to thank: if we are bearers of gratitude, the world itself will become better, even if only a little bit, but that is enough to transmit a bit of hope."

"Let us thank the Lord for every grace received and let us look with confidence and hope to the future, entrusting ourselves to the intercession of St. Joseph, patron saint of the new year. May it be for each of you and for your families a happy year full of divine graces."
