DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Next Sunday is Divine Mercy Sunday, a feast day. Jesus told St. Faustina that this Feast of Mercy would be a very special day when "all the divine flood-gates through which graces flow are opened" (Diary of St Faustina [Diary] 699).

Jesus promised that "The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain the complete forgiveness of sins and punishment" (Diary 699).

This is also a day we venerate the image of the Divine Mercy of Our Lord Our who said to St Faustina "I want the image to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it. I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish" (Diary 341, 48).

Please take the time to visit with the image of The Divine Mercy and venerate Jesus. A print of the image is located on the western wall of our church, to the left of the statue of St Luke.

The Woodvale conference of SVDP would like to send our heartfelt appreciation to all you generous parishioners who have so abundantly assisted us over the year and in particular during lent, with food, vouchers and other necessary shopping items.

Your generosity does not go unnoticed, and we keep you all in our prayers and we are extremely grateful, as we are able to help so many people in need through your donations.

Easter blessing to you all, and once again thank you all so much.
God Bless

A big THANK YOU to all who helped during this Lenten period in making it a holy and spiritual experience for everyone. Thank you especially to those who put in so much effort and gave so much of their time during the Holy Week and the Triduum; setting up the altar for the Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, arranging the flowers, organizing the washing of the feet and the Stations of the Cross. Thank you to the Choir, Ushers, Acolytes, Altar Servers, Readers, Special Ministers, cleaners and each of you who helped in your own way to make this a special Easter Celebration. May the Risen Lord bless you and your families.

Thank you.—Fr. Stephen—

NEW PARISHIONERS—We would like to welcome any new parishioners and invite you to enter your details in the New Parishioners' Book that is located in the Church foyer.
